ABOUT INTERNATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

International Model United Nations (IMUN) is a traveling conference that brings youth together from around the world to learn and share ideas from a diverse set of experiences and backgrounds where the Executive board, International Press and International Delegates consolidate to learn about diplomacy, international relations, and the United Nations.

At IMUN, delegates gain insight into the United Nations and the dynamics of international relations by assuming the roles of UN representatives and members of other international bodies and national cabinets. International MUN is an exciting opportunity to debate issues that confront world leaders, to draft resolutions in response to the global issues and work with others who are equally motivated and passionate about the topics of debate. The longevity and dynamic that only a conference of our size can achieve, makes IMUN one of the preeminent simulation of UN in the world.

True to the spirit of the United Nations, IMUN strives to foster a constructive forum for open dialogue on complex global issues, including international peace and security and economic and social progress. IMUN stresses the in-depth examination and resolution of pressing issues by emphasizing the process over results. However, with great powers come great responsibilities. There are limitations to negotiations especially when international diplomacies and great interests are involved. We hope through IMUN, students learn the importance of balancing national interests with the needs of the international community.

OBJECTIVES

Develop deeper knowledge on current global issues and improve critical thinking.

Strengthen their diplomacy skills and develop ideas to solve current international problems.

Improve researching, public speaking, debating and writing skills in addition to critical thinking, teamwork and leadership abilities.

Differentiate between the parliament and the UN, while distinguishing power struggle from diplomacy.

Improve international exposure by gaining experiences from delegates across the world.

Working collectively is a skill that IMUN abides by and believes yields positive result. Hence presenting, our collaboration with one of the biggest MUN in China, NKMUN for IMUN CHINA 2019.

Nanking Model United Nations (NKMUN) is a Model United Nations Conference orienting to the middle school students worldwide. Over the past nine years, twelve conferences have been successfully held, involving more than 9000 participants.

NKMUN keeps in mind the genuine responsibility and mission it has . It's motto is best described as: to help cultivate global citizens with critical thinking and humanistic notion.

In NKMUN, apart from the UN committees, there are innovative special committees, such as Business Summit, and model Chinese Government System, all of which provide a chance for the delegates to have a further comprehension of global society. Just like a conference dedicates to citizen education, NKMUN does it's best to give every delegate opportunity to gain knowledge and have progress here.

The constant efforts by NKMUN has enable it to become a high-quality international conference. They take pride in providing the delegates with an unforgettable experience with professional and international platform, promoting aspiration, responsibility, critical thinking, with global view as their long-term goal. During the conference, academic team and delegates with diverse cultural backgrounds come together for various cultural communication activities. This is organised with a belief that every delegate will enjoy such a wonderful intellectual communication of different thoughts and cultures

1. UNSC AND UNHRC JOINT COMMITTEES

Topic: In the Nightmare of Holocaust: Rwanda

Marcus: So when I grow up, my I.D. card will say "Hutu"?

Augustin: Yes. But one day, I hope that it will just say "Rwandan".

-Sometimes in April

On the evening of April 6, 1994, a plane carrying Habyarimana and Burundian Pres. Cyprien Ntaryamira was shot down over Kigali killing everyone on board. Hutu extremists were thought to be responsible for it. The organized killing of Tutsi and moderate Hutu began that night, led by Hutu extremists. Prime Minister Agathe Uwilingiyimana, a moderate Hutu, was assassinated the next day, Her murder was part of a campaign to eliminate moderate Hutu or Tutsi politicians, and thus allowing for the formation of an interim government of Hutu extremists assembled by Col. Théoneste Bagosora. The speaker of the National Development Council, Theodore Sindikubwabo, became the interim president.

And that is just the beginning of a nightmare.

The mass killings in Kigali quickly spread from that city to the rest of Rwanda, with some 800,000 people slaughtered over the next three months. They were targeting members of the minority Tutsi community, as well as their political opponents, irrespective of their ethnic origin.

A year after US troops were killed in Somalia, the US was determined not to get involved in another African conflict. The Belgians and most UN peacekeepers pulled out after 10 Belgian soldiers were killed. Rwanda's current president has accused France of taking part in the massacres - a charge denied by Paris.

Delegates across the globe, now is your chance to restore the law and order on this very land in Central Africa, and liberate the people plunged into an abyss of suffering.

2. WORLD INTERNET CONFERENCE 2019

For centuries, we humans have been following existing paradigms for problem solving and development. The digital revolution that started in 1940's boosted the entire development process. What once seemed unimaginable was now within reach. Several revolutionary technologies have reached pinnacle, and some have converged, touching the lives of billions. However, along with technical miracles we got some issues of grave concern. The ways in which the technologies are designed and disseminated has lead to multiple consequences. For example a cell phone may be used as a handy instrument that connects everyone, making the world a global village, but on the flip side it can be a medium through which the hackers may steal your personal information. Data breaches, Internet privacy, freedom of speech, and conflicts among international companies have become a serious threat to privacy as well as harmony in society. These issues have successfully raised intense debates among the social community.

To solve these severe problems, government and company representatives in our conference must redefine their position in the digital world. How to find a balance between technological innovations, data issues and politics while also solving current problems is what the delegates in our conference will be mainly discussing about.

3. ARCTIC COUNCIL

The Arctic, one of the few last pieces of pure lands on this planet, is in danger. The fatalistic global warming is threatening the coastal areas within the Arctic Circle but also other areas around the globe; industrial pollution synthetic waste, overfishing and over mining are further harming the fragile ecosystem of the region. The effects of these have been detrimental and have left the resources for our future generations in scanty amounts. This calls for an urgent need of sustainable development plan.

The expected outcome of this committee should be a draft resolution which serves as a feasible and practical draft solution including reconstruction and measures to creating viable international frameworks for the management of resources. The delegates during the conference enjoy the same right in the voting of all procedural matters, which means no matter the country you are representing is or is not an arctic country, you could join the discussion with full rights.

This is a matter of emergency. If we don't act right now, then the giant icy land would eventually be a victim of atrocities committed by mankind. Join us at the Arctic Council and work together for a better future.
